

CONTENTS

	Page
1. Sutta as a Guideline	10	24. The Five Hindrances	53
2. Different Kinds of Ariyas	11	25. The Hindrances of ill-will	54
3. Two kinds of Bhikkhu	13	26. The Story of Vedehika	56
4. Ten Ariyavasadhammas	15	27. The Remedy for ill-temper	58
5. The Guard of Mindfulness	17	28. Sloth, the Third Hindrance	60
6. The Heresy of a Popular Writer	19	29. Restlessness and Worry	62
7. The Satipatthana Method	21	30. The Way to practise Mindfulness	63
8. The use of "I" in Different senses	23	31. Purity of Mind	67
9. Personal Experience	24	32. Distinction between Mind and Body	69
10. Development of Tranquillity	26	33. The Nature of Consciousness	72
11. The Empirical Approach	27	34. Insight-knowledge of Impermanence	75
12. Real, Empirical Knowledge	28	35. Suffering and Insubstantiality of Life	76
13. The Story of Tambadathika	30	36. From Bhanga to Sankharupekkha	78
14. The Four Mainstays	35	37. Self-examination	80
15. The Third and Fourth Mainstays	37	38. Genuine Sotapan	82
16. The Five Hindrances	39	39. Empirical knowledge	83
17. Constant Mindfulness	42	40. Renunciation of False Views	85
18. The Story of the Monk Tissa	43	41. Three kinds of Pursuit	86
19. Difference between Mind and Matter..	44	42. Pure and Spotless Thought	87
20. The Buddha's Advice for the Conquest of sensual desire.	46	43. Self-knowledge and Liberation	88
21. Two Obstacles to Enlightenment	48	44. Liberation from Doubt	89
22. Negligence and bad Company	50	45. Conclusion	91
23. Practice of Mindfulness	51	46. Note on the Moral Solidity of Sotapan Ariya.	91