

Contents

1. Discussion on Sampayutta Paccayo 655
2. The meaning of Cattaro khandhā arūpīno
The conditioning state as well as the conditioned state consist of vedanā,
saññā, sankhāra and viññāṇa 658
3. The difference between Sahajāta Paccayo and Sampayutta Paccayo 663
4. The meaning of four nāmakkhāndhā 667
5. Discussion on Vippayutta Paccayo 669
6. Wrong understanding of Paṭṭhāna relations 672
7. Conditioning state and conditioned state in Vippayutta Paccayo 676
8. Rūpa dhamma must not be abandoned.
Nāma dhamma can be abandoned. 679
9. To practise pure vipassanā, paññatti must be discarded as much as possible 685
10. When vipassanā ñāṇa gets matured, one does not need to abandon paññatti 692
11. In Vippayutta condition, the conditioning state is nāma dhamma and the conditioned state is rūpa dhamma 699