

Highlights of Myanmar Politics, 1958-1962,
Volume III

* Volume three represents the factional struggle between the Us and Bos and Thakin within the Union Party, and its resultant weakening

* It also describes efforts to establish Buddhism as State Religion, and Consequences of there support or opposition

* This volume also deals with problem of demanding for formation of States such as Rakhine, Mon and Chin each issue eliciting support as well as opposition

MYANMAR POLITICS
1958 - 1962
VOLUME III

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

CHAPTER X

Conflict within the Pyidaungsu Aphwe (Pa Hta Sa)

The Beginning of Factionalism	1
Escalation of Factionalism	20
Factional Conflict Intensifies	31
The All-Burma Union Party Convention	52

CHAPTER XI

Buddhism as the State Religion

AFPFL Preliminary Convention and the Problem of State Religion	60
Measures taken by the AFPFL Government on religious affairs	64
Motion at the Constituent Assembly to enact Buddhism as the State Religion	64
The Sixth Buddhist Synod and the matter of State Religion	66
AFPFL (Clean) Convention and the matter of State Religion	70
The Attitude of the AFPFL (Stable)	71
Advisory Commission on State Religion	73
Meeting of U Nu and leaders of Religious Minorities	75

Oppositions by non-Buddhists	77
The National Religious Minorities Alliance	79
Opposition of non-Buddhist Chins and Kachins	82
State Religion and the Issue of Federalism	84
The Constitution (Third Amendment) Bill	85
State Religion Promotion Bill	87
Reactions of AFPFL, the Sanghas' Front and the NUF on the State Religion Bill	89
Rallies in Support of the State Religion	91
Reaction of the Religious Minorities on the State Religion Bill	92
Security Measures of the Government	93
Move by the opposition to prevent the motion of the Religious Bills in Parliament	94
Debate in Parliament on the Religion Bill	96
Constitution (Fourth Amendment) Bill	103
The incident of the mosque in N. Okkalapa	109

CHAPTER XII

Demand for Rakhine, Mon and Chin States

Formation of States	114
Demand for Rakhine State	117
Demand for the Rakhine State during the pre-war period	117
Demand for a Rakhine State in the aftermath of the AFPFL Preliminary Convention	118
Demand for the Rakhine State at the mass meeting in Sittway	119

Region-wise Enquiry Commission for Self-government of Rakhine Division	120
Proposal for the formation of Regional Representative body for Rakhine Division	120
Demand for Rakhine State by U Shwe Ni, MP	123
Government Policy on the matter of Statehood	124
Regional Autonomy Enquiry Commission	125
Paper on the Aspirations of the Four members of Rakhine Nationals Sub-Committee	126
U Shwe Baw's exposition on his aspirations	127
Commentaries of the Bamar representatives in answer to the papers submitted by the Rakhine representatives	128
Democratization of Local Administration Bill (1949)	129
Regional Autonomy Enquiry Commission (Rakhine Division)	130
The All-Rakhine Conference and the demand for creation of a Rakhine State	130
Movement within Parliament for creation of Rakhine State	132
Constitution (Amendment) Bill 1956	134
Deliberations in Parliament on the Constitution (Amendment) Bill	136
Demand in Parliament for Rakhine State by U Hla Tun Byu	138
Prime Minister U Nu's views on creation of States	139
Multi-Nationalities Conference and the demand for Rakhine State	141
Attitude of NUF on the issue of creation new states	143
Movement in Parliament by U Hla Tun Byu, MP, of the	143

Rakhine National United Front for setting up a Rakhine State	143
Constitution (Amendment) Bill, 1958	143
Debate in Parliament on the Constitution (Amendment) Bill 1958	144
AFPFL Split and the demand for Rakhine State	149
The attitude of the Government of the Union Party on the question of creating new States	153
Observations of the leader of opposition on the policy of the Union Party Government regarding creation of States	154
Formation of an Advisory Board	155
Interview by the Advisory Board with natives of Kyaukphyu and Thandwe, then resident in Yangon	157
Criticisms of the actions taken by the Union Party Government regarding Statehood for Rakhine	158
Public meeting to demonstrate support for the setting up of Rakhine State	159
The views of Saw San Po Thin on the demand for Rakhine State	160
Committee for attainment of Rakhine State	161
Enquires conducted by the Advisory Board at Thandwe	161
Policy of Rakhine Division Workers' Party	162
The seven -point policy of the Union Party Government on the matter of Mon and Rakhine States	162
Debate in Parliament over Prime Minister U Nu's speech	164

Visit of the Government Advisory Board to Kyaukphyu and Sittway	165
Report of the Advisory Board	165
Arrival of Prime Minister U Nu at Sittway	167
Discussions by various Rakhine Political Parties and Organizations on the recommendations of the Advisory Board	168
Opinion of the Committee for Attainment of Statehood for Rakhine	169
A fresh proposal of Prime Minister U Nu on the grant of Statehood	169
Opinion of AFPFL on the fresh proposal of U Nu regarding grant of Statehood	171
Comment of U Hla Tun Byu MP (Rakhine National Solidarity Organization) on U Nu's proposal regarding grant of Statehood	172
Meeting of the Prime Minister with Rakhine and Mon Leaders	173
Nomination of a Rakhine Affairs Minister	175
Arrangement for the formation of Rakhine State Preparatory Committee	176
Scheme for Rakhine State prepared by the Rakhine National Solidarity Organization	176
Taunggyi All-States Conference and the implementation of Rakhine State	177
Formation of the Rakhine State Preparatory Committee	178
Law drafting Sub-Committee for Rakhine State	179
The draft 1962 Rakhine State Constitution Bill	180

The 1962 Union Constitution (Fifth Amendment) Bill	181
Discussion on secession of Rakhine State from the Union	181
Objections to the Bills regarding Rakhine State	183
Protests over omission of the Right of Secession in the Rakhine State Bill	184
Rakhine State Bills Submitted to the Government	184
Discord within Rakhine National Solidarity Organization regarding the office of Rakhine Affairs Minister	185
Negotiations for the formation of a Provisional Rakhine State Government	186
Prime Minister U Nu and the problem of appointing the Rakhine Affairs Minister	186
Letter addressed to the PM by the President of AFPFL U Ba Swe	187
Aspiration of Mon Nationals for Statehood	190
Formation of All-Ramanya Mon Association	191
Formation of Mon National Association	191
Conference of the Mon National Associations	192
Demands of the representatives of various Mon Association	192
Attitude of the AFPFL towards the affairs of Mon Nationals	193
Demand of a Mon national for the office of Minister	194
Resolutions made at the Second Mon Conference	195
Attitude of the Union Party Government regarding Constituent States	197
Demand for a separate Mon State	197
Meeting of Mon leaders with the Press	198
Aspirations of Mon Youths of Yangon	199

Movement of Mon National Association	200
Attitude of the AFPFL Government regarding Mon Affairs	202
Formation of the Regional Autonomy Enquiry Commission	202
Report of the Regional Autonomy Enquiry Commission	203
Paper submitted by Mon Sein Daing on the aspirations of the Mons.	206
Appeal of Dagon Mon Sangha Association	207
Rejoinder of Mon Sein Daing against the opinion of the Regional Autonomy Enquiry Commission	208
Declaration of the Mon National Association	210
Resolutions passed at the meeting of Mon Leaders	211
Question in Parliament on the matter of Mon State	213
The problem of the Mon State and the All Nationalities Conference	213
Attitude of U Nu towards the creation of the Mon State	214
AFPFL split and the prospect of creating the Mon State	215
Surrender of Mon Insurgents during the term of the Clean AFPFL Government	216
Preparation to move the 1958 Constitution (Amendment) Bill	217
Demand for the creation of Mon State, by the Mon National league	218
Resolutions made at the Second Mon Conference	219
Attitude of the Union Party Government regarding Constituent States	219
Meeting of Mon leaders with the Press	219
Formation of a Government Advisory Board	219
Aversion to the inclusion of Bago in the Mon State	222

CHAPTER XIII
Beginnings of the Federal Principle

Motion for the revision of the Constitution	265
Formation of the Constitution Revision Committee	267
The task of the Constitution Committee	269
The Views of some Shan representatives on the revision of the Constitution	269

The new proposal of PM U Nu on the granting of Statehood	238
Prime Minister U Nu meets with Rakhine and Mon leaders	239
Nomination of the Minister for Mon Affairs	240
Dispute over the inclusion of Mawlamyaine in the Mon State	240
Taunggyi All-States Conference and the Implementation of the Mon State	241
Demand for the inclusion of Pa-O representatives in the Mon State Preparatory Committee	242
Protest against inclusion of Thaton in the Mon State	243
Negotiations for the appointment of members of the Mon State Government	244
Dissension among the Pa-Os of Thaton District	244
Minister U Thwin objects to the inclusion of Mawlamyaine and Thaton District in the Mon State	245
The Union Party Mons advocate inclusion of Thaton and Mawlamyaine in the Mon State	246
Public protest against inclusion of Mawlamyaine in the Mon State	247
Dissension among members of the Committee over the Report of the Mon State Preparatory Committee	248
Minister U Thwin objects to the introduction of the Mon State (Amendment) Bill	249
U Ba Swe's stand on the creation of the Mon State	249
Mon National Association withdraws from the NUF	249
Counter-demonstration for the expeditious creation of the Mon State	250

The cause of the Chin nationals	251
Thakin Nu's proposal on the formation of the Chin Affairs Council	252
Motion for the creation of the Chin State	253
Debate on the motion for the creation of the Chin State	254
Further debate by the Chin MPs on the motion for the creation of the Chin State	255
Comment of the Chin Affairs Minister, U Za Hre Lian	256
Opinion of two Chin MPs	257
Dissension among the Chin MPs over the establishment of the Chin State	258
Protest against the inclusion of Yaw in the Chin State	260
Meeting between the Government Advisory Committee and the Chin representatives	261
Report of the Government Advisory Committee	261
Review on the demand for the creation of new constituent states	262