ELLIN GYWE
(November 1919 - 2008)

Ellin Gywe was born in 1919 in a town of 1000 people and lived her entire life in the mountains of Wales. She is remembered primarily for her extraordinary watercolor paintings. As a female painter in a male-dominated profession she was one of the few women in the world to be elected to the Royal Society of Watercolorists. Her work is a testament to her artistic talent and her dedication to her craft.
