REMARKS ON MAṅGALA SUTTA

If these 38 welfares or virtues, the daily guides to good living, are practised to become realities by all persons, they will meet neither loss nor ruin in both mundane and supramundane affairs. And they will surely everywhere realize wealth and progressive life without fail. As these teachings are concerned naturalistically with guide to life, they are applicable to all persons without regard to race, nationality, religion; all who follow the universal teaching will obtain all-round development and success. "I teach victory against trouble".

the Maṅgala Sutta given as promise.*

As Maṅgala Dhamma teaching comprises all things concerning mundane and supramundane in great detail, we can conclude and declare that Maṅgala great wisdoms are the essence of three Pitaka canon. The essence of Tipitaka is seen completely here only
