

Content

Chapter 1

The richest country in the world	1
Factors essential for naming a religion	2
Choosing the right image at Bodh Gaya	3
A competition between Buddha and Upali.	8
The broad-mindedness of the Buddha	11
A genuine human being means	11

Chapter 2

A Non-Buddhist old lady on a Buddhist monastery	13
One who escaped death with the five fold Ananda prayer	16
One who escaped the danger of an Ogre by Namō Buddhassa	18
The powers of Pathana encountered by Bamo Sayadaw	24
The religion of nature that concerns all human beings	30
The Cause of Pestilence	32
The method to propagate other religions	34

Chapter 3

The Attributes of the Dhamma	38
One whose cancer was cured through the power of dhamma	40
Those who are living without eating food	42
The body suffers because the mind tortures	44
When young at heart the appearance is youthful	46
The cause of illness and the cure	48
The Japanese who cured his cancer with dhamma	50
Vipassana that must be practised serially	52
The power of paritta and metta by U Sucitta	56
One who became a Buddhist because of paritta	57
The factors which must be kept by one who recites paritta	58
The Noble Buddha who is close to us	61

Chapter 4

The Attributes of Buddha Images	62
Animals which were reborn as Celestial beings because of revering the Buddha	65
Criticisim and Admonition	67
The attitudes of a narrow-minded person and a broad-minded person	68
How to differentiate between a fool and a good and wise person	69
The cause of not listening to Buddha's words	70
Look and see with love	72
The last stanza is even more valuable	74

An Optimist Madaya Sayadaw	75
False Pride	80
Ariyas who are like Fire	82
Those who met with calamity by stealing the Diamond Orb	83
Galone U Saw and a Buddha image carved out of dark wood	85
An Indian soldier and a Buddha image	86
An edifice in the celestial abode, before dying	89
A narrow-minded person and a broad-minded person	90
Whether the Celestial abode appears or not	94
One who escaped death because of Saddha	97
A small cetiya which saved U Yama's life	98

Chapter 5

All Human Beings have been Relatives
Those who loved and revered Buddha as their own son	100
Three kinds of vision or seeing	101
Changing the outlooks	102
The benefits of not eating evening meal	103
A Touchstone for a virtue person	104
The cause of the population getting lesser	105
One who died a violent death for abusing a Sayadaw	108
The writer himself had to bear the abuse	110
Differentiating between Traditional Buddhists and Genuine Buddhists	112
The title of the dhamma talk was	113
Suvanna Sama's optimistic outlook (policy)	114
Were they really free from disturbances?	116

Borrowing and six kinds of suffering	119	How Mettā is Extended	160
The four methods of living a long and healthy life by Shwe Hintha Sayadaw	120	How to calculate four aeons and a hundred thousand world cycles	164
The Four verses of Sankin Sayadaw for Health and Longevity	121	A hundred thousand worlds	166
Atthanametān and Sorcery Witchcraft	124	Dāna Parami	168
Wishing to have glory is despicable	126	How the world's Learned see Buddhism
The cause of Sujita becoming a paddy bird.	132	Living according to the Principle	202

Chapter 7

How Jatila rich man divided his legacy	134	Not changing the Religion but to Purify the mind	204
Pop-corn and the Celestial Maiden	135	Five kinds of Samudaya	208

Chapter 8

The benefits one reaps in the present life for giving dana	138	A Profitable Philosophy	268
A non-Buddhist daughter who became a peta	141	A lay devotee like a grave digger	274
This was how King Yama interrogated because of six poles of bamboo dana	142	A half-cast Buddhist and a genuine Buddhist	279
one who escaped from apaya danger	143	The example of the moon and the sun	305
Ahmoe's previous life	144	Two, Three days at Tāvātimsa	309
The Third life span and the Third Religion	145	A Brahmin woman giving untimely Caesarian birth	311
A Religion of Human Being	145	Searching for life is like a dream	313
A Buddhist is not a Servant of any person	146	One who has died and one who lives, like a red hot iron	314

Chapter 6

Choosing a Religion Objectively	147	Searching for life like blowing a conch	315
Anguttara Nikaya Tika Nibat		Searching for life, like the example of one who worships fire	316
Kesaputta Suttan	154	The Example of taking out money fibre	320
Ten factors in not believing	155	How the Scholars of the world view	328
Discard it if you know it yourself	156
The three dhammas that must be discarded	156
The Three dhammas that must be practised	158

Chapter 9

The Practice to be a Samma Ditthi Buddhist in every existence	330
---	-----