

CONTENTS

|   | page       |
|---|------------|
| The Second Factor that sharpens the Indriya controlling faculties | 42  |
| Observing Respectfully  | 43         |
| Observing closely and attentively   | 45         |
| -Noting precisely with the present moment ( Paccuppanna )                | 55         |
| -Observing to know the Paramattha  | 61         |
| Samatha and Vipassanā                                      | 64  |
| Observing Vedanā (Sensation)   | 69         |
| -Knowing the nature   | 71         |
| -Overwhelming the Vedanā   | 73         |
| -Patience & Perseverance  | 79         |
| The Third Factor that sharpens the Indriya controlling faculties  | 82  |
| Uninterrupted Continuity  | 82         |
| Sampajañña Instructions  | 86         |
| The first Sampajañña Instruction   | 89         |
| The second Sampajañña Instruction  | 111        |
| The third Sampajañña Instruction   | 113        |
| The fourth Sampajañña Instruction  | 118        |
| The fifth Sampajañña Instruction   | 119        |
| The sixth Sampajañña Instruction   | 129        |
| The seventh Sampajañña Instruction                                       | 132        |
| The Fourth Factor that sharpens the Indriya controlling faculties | 143 |
| The support of Suitable factors   | 144        |
| Suitable accommodation  | 145        |
| Suitable types of meditation centers  | 148        |
| The Seven suitable factors  | 152        |
| The First Factor that sharpens the Indriya controlling faculties  | 31  |
| Inclining the mind towards passing away   | 31         |
| Experiencing the passing away   | 35         |
| Experiencing Dukkha  | 37         |
| Experiencing Anatta  | 38         |

|  | page       |
|--|------------|
| Suitable alms-resort village   | 153        |
| Suitable conversation  | 153        |
| Fewness of wants   | 154        |
| Contentment  | 156        |
| Solitude & Quietness   | 157        |
| Repeated deligence   | 158        |
| Sīla  | 160        |
| Samādhi   | 161        |
| Paññā   | 162        |
| Vimutti   | 166        |
| Vimutti Nāna  | 167        |
| Suitable fellow practitioners  | 171        |
| Suitable nourishment   | 172        |
| Suitable climate   | 199        |
| Suitable posture   | 200        |
| The Fifth Factor that sharpens the Indriya controlling faculties | 203 |
| Taking note of the Causes of Vipassanā Samādhi                          | 203        |
| Signs ( nimitta ) of Samādhi                                     | 203        |
| Reflecting on the causes   | 204        |
| Other Causes   | 206        |
| Levels of Nāna  | 206        |
| Experiences in the past lives  | 209        |
| The practice of Samatha & Vipassanā in the Past                  | 210        |
| Viewing of Dukkha Vedanā  | 212        |
| Observing & noting on Dukkha Vedanā                                     | 213        |
| Dwelling of Rāgānusaya lobha  | 216        |
| Abandoning of Rāgānusaya lobha  | 216        |

|  | page       |
|--|------------|
| The Sixth Factor that sharpens the Indriya controlling faculties   | 220 |
| Developing the suitable Bojjhanga dhamma                                  | 220        |
| Development of Upekkhā-sambojjhanga                                       | 221        |
| Development of Samādhi-sambojjhanga                                       | 222        |
| Development of Passadi-sambojjhanga                                       | 222        |
| The nature of the mind   | 223        |
| Uplifting the depressed mind   | 226        |
| Development of Viriya-sambojjhanga  | 227        |
| The four rare opportunities  | 228        |
| The four good opportunities  | 229        |
| Reflecting on the sufferings of hell   | 230        |
| Development of Pīti-sambojjhanga  | 241        |
| Pīti not meriting sambojjhanga                                     | 241        |
| Pīti meriting sambojjhanga   | 242        |
| Five kinds of Pīti  | 243        |
| The Seventh Factor that sharpens the Indriya controlling faculties | 256 |
| Recapitulation   | 256        |
| Developing of attitude to practice without regard for life or limb               | 258        |
| How to contemplate to acquire such attitude                                      | 258        |
| -The case of a Maha Thera and his novice monk                                    | 260        |
| An important point for consideration   | 261        |
| The case of a yogi with chronic knee pain  | 262        |
| The importance of having a proper attitude                                       | 264        |

|   | page       |
|---|------------|
| The Eighth Factor that sharpens the Indriya controlling faculties | 266 |
| Overwhelming Suffering  | 266        |
| Development of the series of Nāna  | 268        |
| Nāma Rupa Pariccheda Nāna  | 268        |
| Paccaya Pariggaha Nāna   | 272        |
| Sammasana Nāna   | 274        |
| Practicing Patience   | 278        |
| Udayabbaya Nāna  | 287        |
| Dwelling of Rāgānusaya in the Sukha Vedanā                        | 290        |
| Abandoning Rāgānusaya  | 291        |
| Bhanga Nāna  | 293        |
| Bhaya Nāna   | 295        |
| Adinava Nāna   | 295        |
| Nibbida Nāna   | 296        |
| Muncitu-Kamyatā Nāna   | 296        |
| Patisankhā Nāna  | 297        |
| The Example of a fisherman  | 297        |
| The Second Phase of Dukkha Vedanā  | 301        |
| Sankhārupekkhā Nāna  | 306        |
| Dwelling of Avijjānusaya Moha  | 308        |
| Abandoning Avijjānusaya Moha   | 309        |
| The Ninth Factor that sharpens the Indriya controlling faculties  | 311 |
| Not giving up observing and noting until one reaches the End of the Path        | 311        |
| The End of the Path   | 312        |
| Goals for the End of the Path   | 312        |
| Possibility of reaching the End of the Path                                     | 314        |

|   | page       |
|---|------------|
| The Four Rare Dhammā  | 314 |
| The Four good opportunities  | 315 |
| Fulfilment of Practice to completion                                   | 318 |
| Incomplete Teachings or Practice                                       | 321 |
| Complete Teachings but Incomplete Practice                             | 325 |
| Incomplete Teachings   | 328 |
| Realizing the Sublime Dhammā while going about the daily chores | 335 |
| The Four Noble Truths  | 339 |
| Developing Magga Saccā  | 341 |
| Distinguishing &amp; Comprehension of Dukkha Saccā              | 343 |
| Abandonment of Samudaya Saccā                                   | 344 |
| Realization of Nirodha Saccā                                    | 344 |