Developments And Progress In The Building Of A Nation (Between 1988-89 and 2010) | 131 | This book will be the 31 st revised and updated edition which includes new chapters entitled: (1) Rohingya Issue An Ethnic Problem Or A Geopolitical Game, (2) Myanmar Pressured To Open Its Doors And To Grant Illegal Migrants Citizenship Or Ethnic Status, (3) Rohingya Issue Being Exploited To Serve Geopolitical Interes Of The UK And the US, (4) Who Is Behind The Turmoil And Chaos In The Rakhine State. The author’s aim is to highlight the facts that this so-called Rohingya issue has been deliberately orchestrated to be able to demonize Myanmar by portraying the nation as an anti-Islamic nation targeting Muslims living in the country and ethnic cleansing a group which in reality does not exists in the first place besides accusing Myanmar of genocide of so-called Rohingyas, when in actual fact no piles of bodies, mass graves photo or video exist to support this claim. Also, on the accusation of religious prosecution, according to the 2023-2024 statistics there are approximately 72,000 Buddhist religious edifices for the 87% Buddhist population, 7979 churches for the 6.2% Christian population, 4433 mosques for the 4.3% Muslims and over 1000 temples for 0.05% of the Hindu population and in many places in the country, different religious buildings co-exist next to each other in the same communities reflecting religious harmony in the country. Since the time Myanmar regained independence from Britain all the four major religions practiced in the country have officially been enjoying religious holidays. Christians celebrate Christmas, Muslims celebrate Eid and Ramadan, Hindus celebrate Diwali and Buddhist have their holidays. It is also interesting to note that senior state leaders including the Head of State attend these special occasions and participate in their celebrations every | |
